3. Add a few drops of the food coloring gel into the butter and mix until you have a nice orange color.
(If you want the dye to have a swirl effect, don't over stir.)
4. Once you have a dough consistency, shape the dough into little balls. (They should be about 1-2 inches each in size.)
5. Using a toothpick, draw lines down all sides of the balls to make them look more like pumpkins.
6. Add a mini chocolate chip to the top of each one for the stem.
7. Place your tiny pumpkin patch in the fridge for about an hour to firm, or serve right away.
